35th SportFilmFestival

In order to support the candidature of Palermo as European Capital of Sport 2016 the Municipality of Palermo is involved in the organization of the most important sporting events, among these events there is the International Film Festival, totally dedicated to sports cinema.

From the 10th to the 14th of June 2015 Palermo will be the Capital of Sports Cinema with the awards given to great personalities of sport, television, sport journalism, and a venue for important collateral events.

This year the Gran Galà Paladino d'Oro will take place inside the Mundial Village, that is an event organized for the FIFA World Cup "Brasile 2014" in the evocative archaeological location "Castello a Mare" (Sea Castle) in Palermo. There are 85 enrolled films, 15 participating countries: Brazil, Canada, France, England, Ireland, Italy, Poland, Bulgaria, Turkey, Latvia, Lithuania, Sweden, Russia, USA, Venezuela.

As every year for a quarter of a century the Festival Commissions (Movie and Prize Commissions) will assign the coveted statuettes for Best Short Film, Best Feature Film, Best Paralympic Film, Best Foreign Film. Moreover among the films the Paladino d'Oro prize will be assigned for Best Picture, Best Screenplay, Best Editing, Best Sound Mixing, Best Director and the "GREGORIO NAPOLI" prize for film criticism.

During the days of SportFilmFestival there will be "Sport & Food Lifestyle", a conference on the themes of physical activities, healthy eating and lifestyle. The connection among these three topics can be a turning point for economic, social and cultural wealth.
